Conſtantinople, Auguſt 16.

EZade Effendi, who was formerly Muſty, and has been ſome Time exiled at his Houſe on the Boſphorus, died there a few Days ago.

Moſcow, Aug. 20. From the Preparations which are making at Court, it is believed that the Journey, which the Empreſs has for ſome Time propoſed making into the Ukraine, will ſoon take Place; and we are informed, that by the Care of Count Raſoumoſſky every Thing is actually ready at the Caſtle of Kiow, for the Reception of her Imperial Majeſty and her Retinue. As the Troops, which have been for ſome Time encamped on the Frontiers of the ſaid Province, and which were to have ſeparated at the End of this Month, in order to return to their reſpective Quarters, have received Orders to remain encamped during all the next Month, it is inferred from thence, that her Imperial Majeſty, in her Journey to Kiow, may make a Tour to that Camp. The Marquis d'Arragona, a Neapolitan Nobleman, is arrived here, in order to engage himſelf in the Service of this Court. He is ſoliciting the Rank of Colonel, and there is a great Appearance that it will be granted him.

Naples, Aug. 28. Within theſe few Days two Projects have been preſented to the King, which, if they are put in Execution, cannot fail of producing great Advantages to the Commerce; the firſt is, to erect a Cauſey or paved Road, which is to reach from Salerno almoſt to Reggio in Calabria, in order to facilitate the Tranſportation of Merchandize between theſe two Cities; and the ſecond is, to turn the Courſe of the Volturno, to render that River navigable, and to make it paſs by Caſerta.

Genoa, Sept. 1. The Prince d'Yachi, who was formerly Ambaſſador from the King of the Two Sicilies to the Court of Spain, paſſed thro' this City a few Days ago, on his Return to Naples. The laſt Letters which the Republick have received from Corſica, are not favourable, and give Room to apprehend, that the Troubles in that Iſland, inſtead of diminiſhing, will daily increaſe.

Genoa, Sept. 3. The Government has given Orders for arming again two or three Feluccas, in order to ſend them to cruize on the Coaſts of Corſica, that they may more effectually prevent the Malecontents of that Iſland from receiving any Proviſions or military Stores.

Hermanſtadt in Tranſylvania, Sept. 1. The States of this Principality, who opened their Diet on the 22d paſt, continued to deliberate on the Demands which have been made to them on the Part of our Auguſt Sovereign, by the Count Wenſlas de Wallis, whom her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary has named her Commiſſary to this Aſſembly.

Turin, Sept. 2. The Marquis de Cruſſol, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the French King to the Court of the Infant Duke, arrived here from Paris the 29th of laſt Month: The next Day he had the Honour to be preſented to his Majeſty and the Royal Family, and the Day before Yeſterday he continued his Rout to Parma.

Rome, Sept. 4. We continue to be aſſured, that the Promotion of Cardinals, which has been ſo long expected, will take Place the 19th Inſtant.

Milan, Sept. 5. The Duke of Modena is ſoon expected here to take Poſſeſſion of the Employment of Governor General of the Auſtrian Lombardy; and every Thing is preparing with great Diligence at the Caſtle of this City, for the Reception of that Prince.

Madrid, Sept. 6. On the 26th paſt, an Order, ſigned by his Majeſty, was iſſued from the Secretary of State's Office, forbidding the Subjects of this Crown to carry on any Commerce with the Danes. There is Advice from Cadiz, that Don Venturo de Ozio, Adminiſtrator of the Cuſtoms, died there lately, and that he is ſucceeded by Don Franciſco de Villaſota, before Collector de Millones. From the ſame Place we learn, that the Hon. Captain Howe, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Dolphin, now in that Bay, having been ordered to go to the Port of Sallee, to inform himſelf of the Intention of the Moors, with Regard to Great Britain, was anſwered, That their Deſign was to obſerve their Treaties with his Britannick Majeſty. The ſame Letters add, that a Dutch Ship from the Weſtward had ſeen ſix Algerines off Cape St. Mary's, which made People very uneaſy for the South Sea Ships hourly expected.

[Price Two-Pence.]

expected. M. Cloppenburgh, the Daniſh Conſul at Cadiz, having received Orders from his Court to leave his Catholick Majeſty's Dominions, was preparing to ſet out for London in his Way to Copenhagen.

Modena, Sept. 7. Every Thing is ready for the Journey which our Hereditary Prince propoſes to make to the Imperial Court; and his Royal Highneſs, we are aſſured, will ſet out about the End of next Week.

Vienna, Sept. 8. The Empreſs Queen has been ſo well ſatisfied with the Exerciſe of the Body of the Corps of Artillery, which they perform'd lately in her Preſence at the Camp of Maldau-Thein, that her Majeſty has given Orders for making an Augmentation thereto of 500 Men, and in Conſequence thereof they are to be forthwith raiſed. By the laſt Diſpatches which the Court received from Baron de Penckler, their Imperial Majeſties Reſident at the Ottoman Porte, we are informed that a contagious Diſtemper was again broke out at Conſtantinople, which daily carried off a great Number of People.

Ratiſbon, Sept. 8. The Chevalier de Foilard, Miniſter from France to the Diet of the Empire, is again ſet out to make a Tour into Franconia, in order to employ his good Offices, for an Accommodation of the Differences which ſtill ſubſiſt among ſeveral Princes and States of that Circle.

Prague, Sept. 8. The Camp which the Corps of Artillery had formed at Moldau-Thein, having broke up ſome Days ago, ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction in this City, who went to ſee it, are ſet out from thence to the Camp at Colin, which will not break up, as 'tis imagined, till the 15th of this Month. This Camp is compoſed of ten Regiments of Foot, viz. Francois de Lorraine, Henry Daun, Hildbourghauſen, Jeune and Vieux Wolfembuttle, Wenceſlas Wallis, Leopold Daun, Nicolas and Joſeph Eſterhaſy, and that of the Grand Maſter of the Teutonick Order; the two Regiments of Dragoons of Wirtemberg and Emanuel Collowrath; and that of Pretlack's Cuiraſſiers. As Duke Charles of Lorraine, in his Return to the Low Countries, is expected to paſs through this City, great Preparations are making for his Highneſs's Reception. The greateſt Part of the Artillery which was made uſe of at the Camp of Moldau-Thein, having been drawn out of our Arſenal, was brought hither again a few Days ago.

Dreſden, Sept. 9. Laſt Wedneſday there was a ſplendid Appearance at Court, on Occaſion of the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Prince Royal and Electoral, who entered that Day into the Thirty Second Year of his Age. The King of the Two Sicilies has ſent here one of his Gentlemen of the Bed Chamber, with the Order of St. Janvrier, to the young Prince Charles Maximilian, who will be forthwith inveſted therewith. The Departure of the Court for Hubertſberg remains fixed for the 26th of this Month; and the neceſſary Orders have been given for their Majeſties Reception at that Place. The Count de Mniſzeck, Grand Chamberlain of the Dutchy of Lithuania, who has been here for ſome Time, ſet out Yeſterday on his Return to Poland.

Bareith, Sept. 10. Laſt Thurſday being the Birth Day of the Reigning Dutcheſs of Wirtemberg, Daughter of our Serene Sovereign, there was a grand Appearance at Court; and upon that Occaſion M. de Margrave performed the Ceremony of conferring the Order of the Red Eagle on Count de Boſc, Grand Marſhal, and on the Baron de Croix de Frechapple, his Great Chamberlain; his Highneſs at the ſame Time diſpoſed of ſeveral Vacancies in the Regiment of Guards.

Bruſſels, Sept. 17. The Count de Cobentzel, who is come to relieve the Marquis de Botta d'Adorno, as Chief Miniſter of the Empreſs Queen in the Low Countries, Yeſterday took Poſſeſſion of that Employment: In Conſequence of which his Predeceſſor is preparing to return immediately to Vienna, from whence he will repair to his new Poſt in Italy.
